Lieutenant General James A. Williams, USA
Director, Defense Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20301

Dear General Williams:

The DDCI has completed his review of issues based on the budget submissions for the FY 1984-1988 National Foreign Intelligence Program. He made his tentative decisions after careful consideration of the alternatives presented by my staff, the comments he received from you and others on the alternatives, and the advice provided by the National Foreign Intelligence Council. Those decisions affecting your program and other programs of major interest to you are described for your review. The DDCI will review any appeal you choose to forward. ☐

Should you wish to appeal any of these decisions, it would be most helpful if you would do so in writing by noon, 15 November. A consolidated NFIP ranking, which incorporates tentative DDCI decisions, is being forwarded under separate cover. If my staff or I can be of assistance in the meantime, do not hesitate to call. ☐

Sincerely,
